Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Active Citizenship: A Study Outline This Outline is designed as an aid in the study of ones own community. The essential condition of success in the use of it is efficient investigation of facts and conditions as they are in the community in which the members of the club dwell, and in other places similar in type. In many sections of the Outline the investigation should be divided into parts and assigned in advance to committees, which are thus given time to proceed carefully in the work of getting facts. Hearsay reports should not be admitted; first hand knowledge only is reliable, and the reports of each committee should be discussed openly in the club and adopted, revised, or returned for further investigation. If adopted, a copy of the report should be placed on file in the club and, when advisable, the printing of such reports in the local paper would extend their usefulness. Or, a collection of these reports in pamphlet form, at the end of the year, may be printed for distribution. The work of one club in a Western city, thus printed, proved valuable and useful. Conclusion Of The Outline In One Year The conclusion of all parts of this Outline in one year is not of the least importance. In some section the individual club may come upon the work most important in its own community. When this happens it is well to give more time here and continue the study and investigation as long as interest and practical usefulness demand. The Leader Of Discussion In the use of this Outline, the choice of the leader of discussion is important. About...
