BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.2in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the U. S. -Canada Free Trade Agreements (FTA) binational panel process to resolve trade disputes, focusing on: (1) U. S. and Canadian expectations for the binational panel process; (2) a statistical overview of panel activities and decisions; (3) participants satisfaction with the panel process; and (4) other factors that may have contributed to the controversy over the binational panel process. GAO found that: (1) the U. S. and Canadian compromise on the binational panel process occurred when U. S. and Canadian negotiators could not agree on harmonizing their trade remedy laws in FTA; (2) the panels goals included protecting each countrys sovereignty, creating trade benefits, reducing political pressures, and providing a fair and expeditious review process; (3) expectations on how the panels would accomplish these goals differed because the countries underlying concerns about the use of trade remedy laws remained unresolved; (4) it was difficult to identify any patterns in panel operations because of the small number of completed cases; (5) some participants were satisfied with the binational panel process because they thought the...
