0.3in. Marketing to kids is big business - with children influencing more than USD500 billion in family purchases each year.

Research shows brand loyalty can start as early as age two; familiarity with logos and mascots, as early as six months. Childrens librarians need to take marketing to heart and adapt accordingly, according to youth services expert Pfeil.

Corporations know that marketing to kids is big business - with children influencing more than USD500 billion in family purchases each year. Research shows brand loyalty can start as early as age two; familiarity with logos and mascots, as early as six months. Childrens librarians need to take marketing to heart and adapt accordingly, according to youth services expert Pfeil. Creating kid-friendly marketing programs is the first step. While providing library professionals with guidelines for preparing a complete, comprehensive marketing plan, Going Places with Youth Outreach offers tips for getting childrens attention, from where to post event flyers (childs eye height, please) to taking storytime to where restless children might be waiting (how about the DMV) This hands-on guide shows librarians how to apply marketing concepts to expand...
