As then-BBG Chairman Marc Nathanson said in 2001: It is our responsibility to serve as a firewall between the international broadcasters and the policy-making institutions in the foreign affairs community, both in here in Washington and overseas. This is a responsibility we take very seriously. Because at the end of the day, it is precisely by providing accurate news and information - sought and trusted by people 15 around the world - that we earn and keep our credibility. However vacancies have plagued the Board, and as the chart below demonstrates, it has not been at full strength since 2004. Much of this has been due to both parties in the Senate playing politics with Board nominations. Currently, the four Board members, each of whom was confirmed in 2002, are serving well beyond their three-year term of office; should any one of them resign, the Board would no longer have a...
