As the note on a preceding page sufficiently states the circumstances that have led to the publication of the sermon which follows. it is not necessary that I should speak of them. A few words, however, respecting the subject discussed, and the manner in which it is here treated, may not be out of place. No well-informed man can be ignorant of the fact that a wonderful change is gradually taking place in the Christian world. This great movement had its origin in the Reformation accomplished, or rather commenced, in the sixteenth century, by Luther, Calvin, and their coadjutors. That astonishing moral revolution, however great its blessings, was far from emancipating the Church of Christ from all the thralldom in which she had so long been held. The Reformers did, indeed, bring back to the world the knowledge of the true way of salvation; - in other words, the glorious doctrine of Justification by Faith. But still many evils remained in connexion with the Church, even in those countries in which the Reformation exerted its happiest influences. As to some of these, the Reformers had not the light necessary to effect their removal; as to others, they had not the power; and as to some others, they had neither the light nor the power. In every...
